A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B. Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. #9	1.Raw		/ -1 \
2.Food 3(#3) 4(#4) supplies B.The Union Navy blockaded southern(#5) C.Pictured right—the "Anaconda plan" to block ports and surround/disable the Confederacy I.Challenging Times A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. #9	2.Food 3(#3) 4(#4) supplies B.The Union Navy blockaded southern		1), families faced shortages in
3	3	• •
4	4
B.The Union Navy blockaded southern	B.The Union Navy blockaded southern
C.Pictured right—the "Anaconda plan" to block ports and surround/disable the Confederacy I.Challenging Times A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. 1I.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded	C.Pictured right—the "Anaconda plan" to block ports and surround/disable the Confederacy Confederacy Challenging Times A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Familles lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
Confederacy I.Challenging Times A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marcher on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. 1I.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded	Confederacy Confederacy Challenging Times A
I.Challenging Times A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. 1I.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded	A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. 11. Challenging Times A. Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B. Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V. Challenging Times A. Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B. The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V. Information A. Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),	C.Pictured right—the "Anacone	da plan" to block ports and surround/disable the
A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B. Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. #9	A(#6) became so severe that in 1863 the women of(#7) marched on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. [9] III.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters VI.Information A.Information traveled at a	Confederacy on the government in a "(#8) riot" B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. [9] III.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	on the government in a "	II.Challenging Times
B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. [9] III.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union	B.Why do you think women rioted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union	A (#6) became so sev	ere that in 1863 the women of (#7) marched
JII.Challenging Times A. Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B. Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V. Challenging Times A. Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B. The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V. Information A. Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI. Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B. People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII. Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII. Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII. Information A. The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	Just women? Write a 1-2 sentence response for your answer. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 16. 16. 16. 17. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18.	on the government in a "	(#8) riot"
II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C. Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	B.Why do you think women rio	ted in Richmond, Virginia? Why do you think it was
II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union	just women? Write a 1-2 sente	nce response for your answer.
II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	II.Challenging Times A.Civilians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union	#9	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
A.Civillians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Civillans in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time
A.Civillians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Civillans in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time
A.Civillians in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Civillans in Vicksburg lived through 47 days of Union(#10) (surrounding the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	III Ob all an aria a Tira a the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	the area/cutting off food and supplies) B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	5 5	brough 47 days of Union (#40) (according
B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	B.Families lived in caves and trenches to escape the bombardment and many starved in the process V.Challenging Times A. Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B. The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A. Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	starved in the process V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time
V.Challenging Times A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters V.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before VI.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home VII.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time		renches to escape the bombardment and many
A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Civilians who had homes near battles often had their homes destroyed or taken over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	• over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	over for use as field(#11) B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	IV.Challenging Times
B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	A.Civilians who had homes nea	ar battles often had their homes destroyed or taken
B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	B.The Chancellor Family was trapped between armies in May 1863 when their home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	over for use as field	#11)
home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	home became General Hooker's Headquarters /Information A.Information traveled at a	•	•
A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Information A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded //III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time		• •
A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.Information traveled at a(#12) rate in the 1800s, but with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	with the(#13),(#14), photography, and the(#15) service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time		(#12) rate in the 1800s, but service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	service, it was moving faster than ever before /I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time
/I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	/I.Information A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time
A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A(#16) reading reached an all-time high B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home //II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded //III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time		i than ever before
B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	B.People scanned the newspapers every day for news of the war or their home /II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time		and an all time high
/II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	/II.Information A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time
A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A(#17) lists were dreaded /III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time		nore every day for news of the war or their home
/III.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	·	pers every day for news of the war or their home
A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	A.The Civil War gave birth to(#18). The U.S. government commissioned photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war.	photographers to travel with the army and(#19) the war. B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea
	B.Alexander Garner, working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information	aded
B Alexander Garner working with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his	photographs C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to _	aded(#18). The U.S. government commissioned
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to _ photographers to travel with th	aded(#18). The U.S. government commissioned ne army and(#19) the war.
photographs	publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to _ photographers to travel with th B.Alexander Garner, working w	aded(#18). The U.S. government commissioned ne army and(#19) the war.
C.Newspapers could not(#20) photographs at the time, but they did	publish(#21) D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to _ photographers to travel with th B.Alexander Garner, working w	aded(#18). The U.S. government commissioned ne army and(#19) the war.
	D.Photographs brought the(#22) of the war home for the first time	VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to _ photographers to travel with th B.Alexander Garner, working w photographs	aded(#18). The U.S. government commissioned ne army and(#19) the war. with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his
		VII.Information A(#17) lists were drea VIII.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to _ photographers to travel with th B.Alexander Garner, working w photographs C.Newspapers could not	aded(#18). The U.S. government commissioned ne army and(#19) the war. with Matthew Brady, shocked the nation with his
	· MILLIOLLIANUUL	VII.Information A(#17) lists were dread viii.Information A.The Civil War gave birth to photographers to travel with the B.Alexander Garner, working with the photographs C.Newspapers could not publish(#21)	