

I. _____ (#1) Elected President

November 6, 1860

A. Lincoln Elected _____ (#2)

1. In the 1860 presidential race, four men ran for president – a northern Democrat, a southern Democrat, an independent, and Lincoln, a republican.
2. Due to the choice of 4 candidates, Lincoln, carrying the votes of the populous North, won.
3. _____ (#3) became very fearful that the anti-slavery _____ (#4) would try to change their way of life.

II. Excerpt, Civilian And Gazette Weekly (November 13, 1860, Galveston, Texas)

- A. The Governor [of _____ (#5)], "earnestly recommended that, in the event of Abraham Lincoln's election to the Presidency, a convention for the people of this State be immediately called to consider and determine for themselves the mode and measure of redress."

[The Governor stated the following]

"That the only alternative left, in my judgment, is the _____ (#6) of South Carolina from the Federal _____ (#7). The indications of many of the Southern States justify the conclusion that the secession of South Carolina would be immediately followed, if not adopted simultaneously, by them, and ultimately by the entire _____ (#8)... The State has, with great unanimity, declared that she has the right peaceably to succeed, and no power on earth can rightfully prevent it."

III. Lincoln Inaugural Address

- A. "In your hands, my dissatisfied fellow-countrymen, and not in mine, is the momentous issue of _____ (#9). The Government will not assail you. You can have no conflict without being yourselves the _____ (#10). You have no oath registered in heaven to destroy the Government, while I shall have the most solemn one to 'preserve, protect, and defend it.'"
